
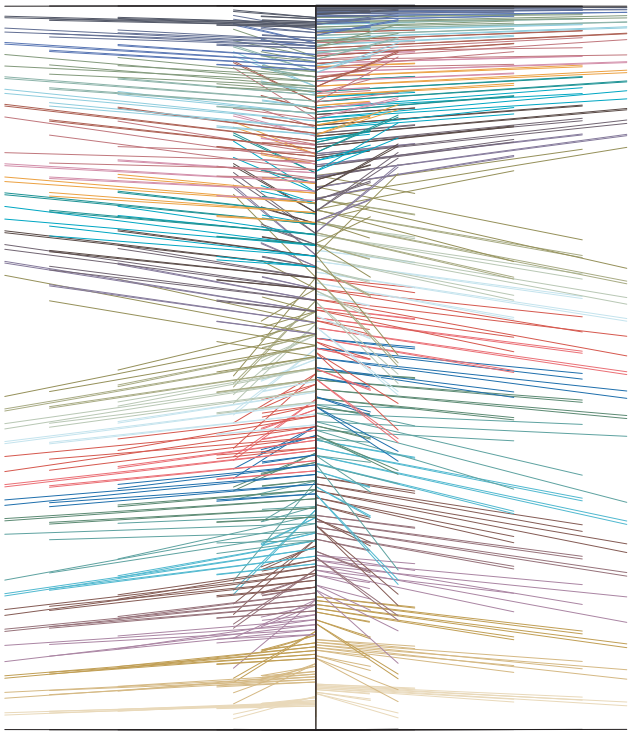

Figure 14.7.5: (C) Oversteegen's dendroid - from above (observe that the Cantor function combs have teeths shifted using the z^2 function, starting from left to right)